near Beatrice with a farmer's family named James Charles, but came to Omaha to find her mother, who is said to be living here with a man who is not her husband.

The child was assisted by the police, but being unable to find the mother, was taken to the institution above mentioned.

Tuesday night, a woman, who is supposed to be the mother, went to the Open Door and asked to be allowed to see the girl and take her away but was refused, as the police have reason to believe that the mother is not the proper person to have the custody of her daughter.

LASHED BY A COURTESAN.

An Irate Female Whips a Male Escort. Belle Brandon, a woman of the town, who s well known by the police, created a scene at Tenth street and Capitol avenue Tuesday evening by horsewnipping Mack Latham, a man who has lived in Omaha for the last twelve years. Latham was out for a little time Tuesday. He hired a horse and buggy from a liveryman and picked up Belle. They rode for half an hour when Latham became tired of his company and put her out of the buggy. This act roused the blood of the chubby damsel, who vowed vengeance.

Later Latham drove up to Tenth street and Capitol avenue and bitched his borse. Belie spied him and while Mack was in a saloon she climbed into the buggy. When he came out he demanded that she get out of the conveyance. Belie got out, but she brought the whip with her and gave the fellow a lively isshing. Both the parties were arrested for disturbing the peace. Belle was fined $17.50 and Latham $7.50.

UNHOLY LOVE.

It Tends to the Breaking of Marital Agreements.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Eckerle, S. H. Farnsworth and Sadie Pierry are the subject for sensational talk. Eckerlee and his young wife came to Omalia from Orlin, Iowa, less than one year ago. They had only been married a snort time. Mrs. Eckerle was young and pretty. Recently the husband, it is said, discovered that she had been intimate with Farnsworth and the couple separated, Mrs. Eckerle going back to ber

Eckerie has a little grocery store at 2205 Cuming street. Farusworth has a drug store at 2113 Cuming street. All of these soon became acquainted. Sadie was Eckerle's domestic servant, It develops now that Mrs. Eckerle and Farnsworth were intimate and that Eckerle and the servant girl were bosom friends. At any rate Mrs. Eckerle has left Omaha and her husband is living here with Sadie as his ousekeeper. Farnsworth denies any intimacy with Mrs Eckerie, but the woman's husband declares that his wife made the confession herself. Farnsworth has been frequently seen in Mrs. Eckerle's company. The Eckerles lived first in Kounize place on Corby street, and afterward in a flat at 2207 Cuming street.

ON TRIAL FOR EMBIZZLEMENT. Frank Angus, a Solicitor, Charged

With a Serious Crime. Frank Angus, a soliciting agent for the Building and Loan association of Minneapolis, was tried in police court yesterday after noon on the charge of embezzlement.

About August 15 Angus induced a man named Morris Stein to subscribe for some stock in the association. Stein had no United States money, his cash assets being confined to ninety rubles in Russian money, which his wife had brought over from the old country a short time before. Angus agreed to credit Stein with $45 for his ninety rubles, and the money changed hands, Stein receiving a certificate of stock therefor.

But he was not altogether satisfied with his investment, and in company with a friend went to the office of the local president, R. M. Patterson, and asked for his money. The latter said that the document was worthless, as Angus had made no return of the cash. Then Angus was hunted up. He admitted that he had not paid in the money, but said that it was all right; that Patterson and he had a side deal together. But Stein didn't care for side deals and demanded his money. Angus said he didn't have 90 rubles about him, so he gave four notes representing the

Stein regarded them as worthless and threw them away, not knowing what they were, he having no knowledge of English. The arrest and trial next followed. The case was not finished last night and will be

IS IT OUTSIDE THE STATE? A Question as to the Location of

Cut-Off Island. The trial of Paul Thoma for shooting Jack Cross at Cnt-Off lake a few weeks ago was begun in Justice Dunn's court on North Sixteenth street yesterday afternoon. County Attorney Mahoney represented the state, and Will Gurley the defense. Before any evidence was taken the latter moved that the defendant be dismissed on the ground that the act was committed outside the state, and that therefore the court had no jurisdiction.

The motion was overruled and the case went to trial. Went to trial.

The taking of the testimony was not concluded until nearly 6 o'clock, and by mutual agreement argument was postponed until Saturday at 5 o'clock, when the defend ant's counsel will endeavor to show that the scene of the shooting is outside the borders of Nebraska.

As Is Our Custom

At this time of the year, we will have for next few weeks our annual SPECIAL SALE of Suits and Overcoats. We always make these sales at this season, when people need the goods and the bargains will do them good. There is no need to explain what a special sale means WITH US. The big crowds attending our special sales tell the story, and tell it well. The people remember the grand values they got at these sales, last year and the year before. We promise to do still better this season. Our buyers have been hard at work the last two weeks, and we are now getting in daily stacks of goods purchased by them at the immense reductions from values which manufacturers must submit to at this time of the year, and OUR CUSTOMERS WILL SHARE THE FULL BENEFIT OF THESE SACRIFICES.

We want to impress upon your mind that the goods we are offering are first class in every respect, first class in quality, first class in work and trimming, and first class in fit, and our stock is worthy the attention of every person who appreciates style and quality in fabrics, trimming and making,

The present week we will offer exceptional values in Men's and Young Men's Suits. We have displayee some of the bargains in our Douglas street window. Let those who never traded with us call and compare our goods and prices. We will make this a great customer-winning season,

We do not harp upon the cheapness of our Clothing, but that does not signify that the SUITS and OVERCOATS which we ask $15, $10, $215 and $30 for are high priced. We could easily cheapen them by putung in inferior trimmings. It is not always the price you pay, but it is the value received in purchase that counts.
